One of Eastern Ontario's Fastest-Growing Companies

SnapCab is a proudly Canadian manufacturer specializing in innovative modular systems for elevators and privacy pods. With a commitment to quality craftsmanship and efficient design, we've revolutionized elevator interiors with our patented paneling systems and expanded into workspace solutions to meet the needs of modern, evolving spaces.

Built using Lean Manufacturing and Industrialized Construction methods, our products are fully customizable, scalable, and designed to integrate seamlessly into any environment.

At SnapCab, we believe in putting people first. By prioritizing purpose, well-being, and growth, we're not just building modular solutions —we're creating opportunities, supporting local jobs, and strengthening Canada's manufacturing industry. Explore how SnapCab's Canadian-made designs can elevate your space with flexibility, functionality, and long-lasting quality.

Unlimited Materials, Finishes & Furnishings

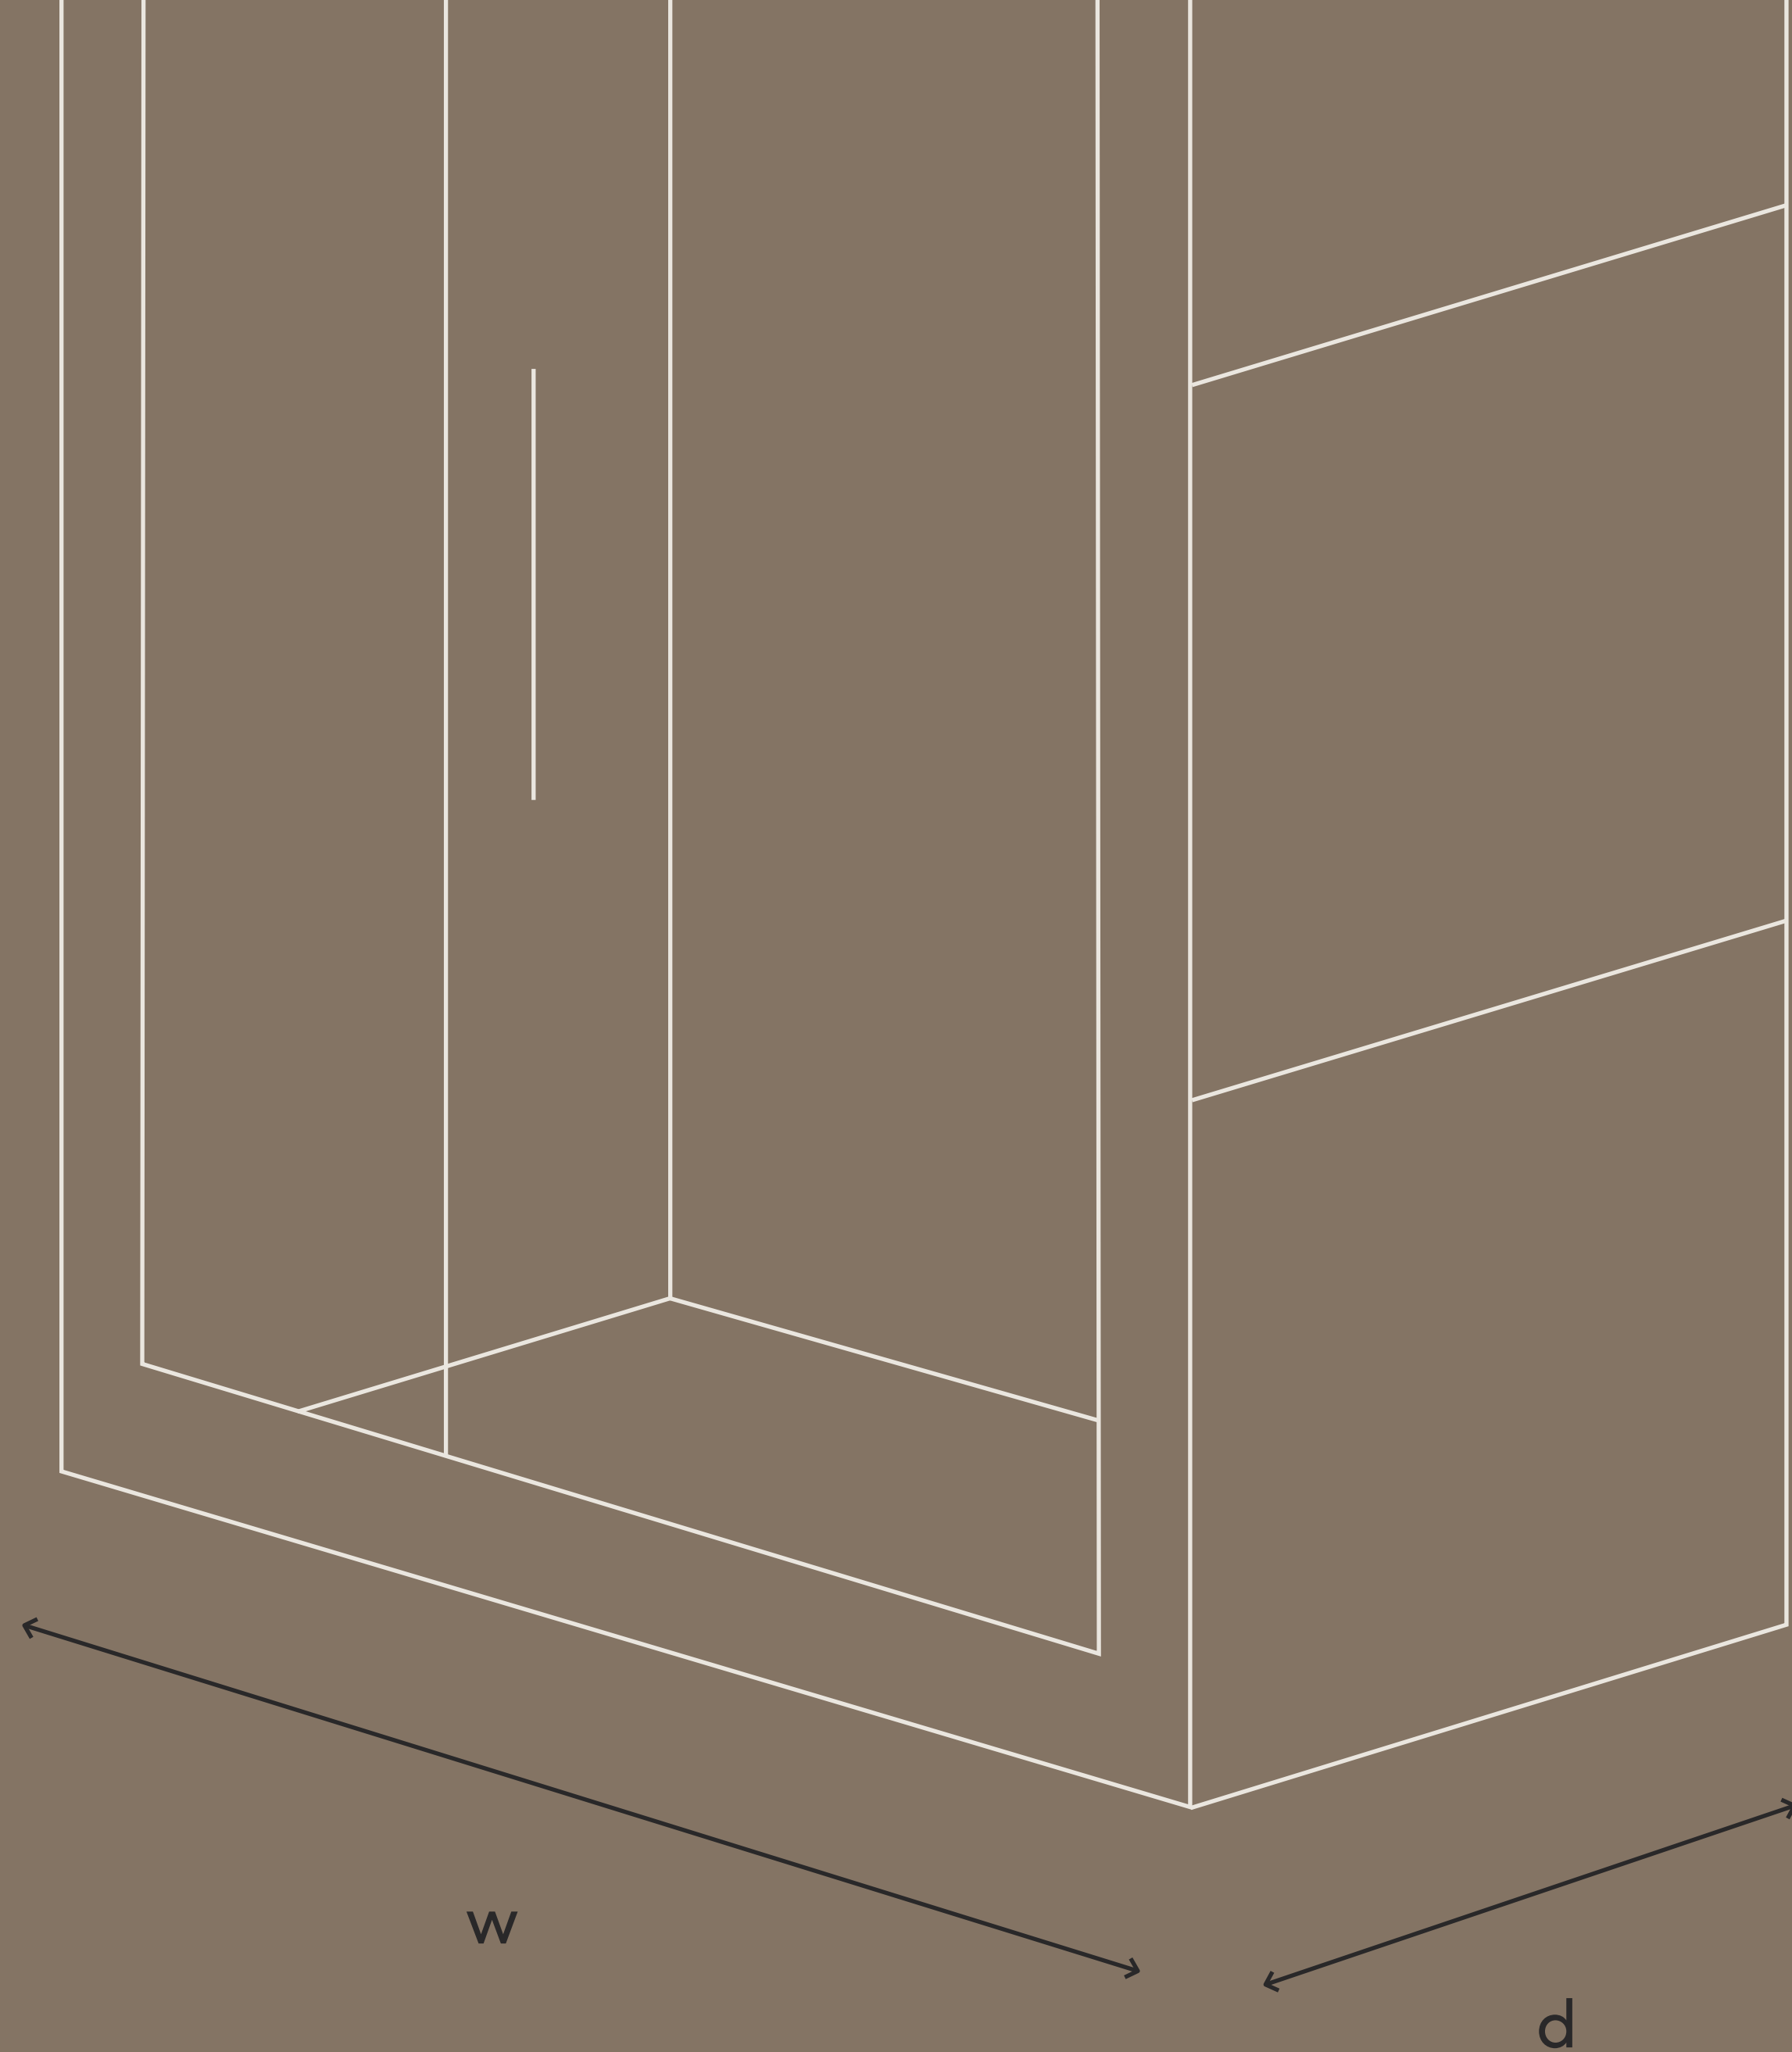

Our patented system empowers you to get exactly what you need. Any size, any finishes, any furnishings. Specify your exact pod size to fit perfectly into your floor plan. Pick from endless finish options to integrate your pod seamlessly with the aesthetic of your space, and chose the most appropriate sound privacy package for your noise environment.

We understand every workplace is as unique as the individuals that work there. Rather than a one-size-fits-all approach, we work with you to design your ideal pod solution - specifically addressing your unique requirements and challenges.

Custom Pod Sizes for Your Unique Office

Our flexible construction allows for custom pod sizes in width, depth, and height to perfectly accommodate the unique specifications of your space. With this flexibility, you can create an environment that seamlessly integrates with your surroundings and optimizes functionality.

Glenn Bostock

Founder & CEO of SnapCab

Glenn Bostock's journey is a testament to resilience, innovation, and purpose-driven leadership. Overcoming challenges associated with learning disabilities, Glenn transformed adversity into opportunity, ultimately founding SnapCab, an award-winning manufacturer of modular elevator interiors and office privacy pods.

At the heart of Glenn's success is his belief in embracing failure as a stepping stone to growth. His leadership philosophy fosters a workplace culture built on kindness, authenticity, and usefulness, values that have propelled SnapCab's impressive growth.

Under his guidance, SnapCab now generates over $30 million in annual revenue and employs more than 130 people across its manufacturing facilities in Canada and the United States. His commitment to creating an innovative and people-first business model is showcased in the YouTube series, A Human Business, and his upcoming book of the same name.

Company Culture

Innovation, Growth & Human-Centered Values

At SnapCab, company culture is more than just a workplace philosophy—it's the foundation of everything we do. Guided by our core values of kindness, authenticity, and usefulness, we have cultivated an environment where employees are empowered to grow, innovate, and contribute meaningfully.

A Culture of Continuous Improvement

SnapCab embraces Lean Manufacturing principles, fostering a mindset of continuous improvement. Employees are encouraged to identify challenges, experiment with solutions, and refine processes—turning obstacles into opportunities. This culture of learning and adaptability has been a key driver of our success.

People-First Leadership

Founded by Glenn Bostock, SnapCab is built on the belief that a business should support the well-being and development of its people. We prioritize a collaborative and inclusive workplace, offering mentorship, professional growth opportunities, and an open environment where every voice matters.

Innovation Through Purpose

SnapCab's commitment to innovation extends beyond our award-winning modular elevator interiors and office privacy pods. It's embedded in our approach to teamwork, product development, and customer solutions. By fostering creativity and adaptability, we continue to evolve and meet the changing needs of modern workspaces.

A Human Business

Our unique workplace culture is showcased in our YouTube series, A Human Business, which highlights how SnapCab's values translate into real-world impact. From leadership development to personal growth, we believe that by putting people first, we can build a company that truly makes a difference.
